

Match Report for 17th November 2011

Chaddy Park Legends (1) vs. Athletico Old Boys(0)

With the Legends still feeling triumphant over their mighty win against the newly relegated Chaddy Park Vets, this week was to prove to be a completely different challenge from a very physical Athletico team, and the battle of 3rd Place in the league up for grabs.

The game got under way with Athletico kicking off in more ways than one, and with the silky flowing play from the Legends frustrating the opposition they decided to go for the “Let’s see who we can kick” approach and with Lenny Lengden & Pretty Boy Jimmy Adamson being on the receiving end of an Eye Gauge and elbowing incidents.

This was to prove one of the quietest nights between the sticks for the Legends newly crowned captain Stevo Stevenson and as the first half progressed he had very little to do.

With 10 minutes gone on the clock, a run down the right wing by Lenny Lengden was found by Terry “he is 100% all left foot” Jennings and with what can only be described as a goal that would grace any Match of the Day Highlights programme, Lenny fired in from a very acute angle to put the Legends ahead !!!

With the first half ticking away, the Legends seemed to have the game completely in control, with some really powerful team work from Stephen “where’s his hair gone” Jones and the very calming influence of the pensioner of the team Jimmy “I can’t understand what he say’s” Cunningham having the Athletico players in their pockets and both players being really hard to breakdown and penetrate and showing the younger members of the team how it is done.

Half Time!!

As the 2nd half approached and with Leftie Jennings finally becoming involved, although still looking quietly disappointed about losing the captaincy to Mr Safe Hands Stevenson, Jennings began to control the game with Model Man Adamson and the Legends were staring 3 points down the barrel.

Then as the game progressed and with only 6 minutes remaining and the Legends outfield quintet all looking battered and bruised from the shocking aggression shown to them all night, a goal bound shot was heading towards the Legends goal, however with an outstretched hand Stevo Stevenson dived low to his Left and “what a save” was the noise bellowing around the ground, and the threat was no more and Stevo Stevenson was heading for a clean sheet performance!!

The Game continued with Leftie Jennings trying all sorts of silky skills, that not only confused the opposition but even managed to confuse himself on more than one occasion with him wondering where the ball was himself, and it was clear to see the game had gone from the reach of Athletico.

Finally the whistle was blown by the not so convincing referee (under statement) and the Battle for 3rd was complete with Lenny Legdens Man of the Match winning goal deciding all 3 points.
